

“Grandpa, will you tell me the story of the two little birds again?”

Grandpa smiles slowly.

“It was a long time ago.
I was very small. But my uniform was very big...”

The Present

“Grandpa... Will you tell me the story of the two little birds again?”

Grandpa

Grandpa smiles slowly.

“It was a long time ago. I was very small.

But my uniform was very big.

I was a captain, in a war I didn’t understand. They called it
the Great War.”

The Great War

The earth shook.
The noise was never-ending.
The sky was filled with smoke.
The bombs fell.
We fought each other.

The Trenches

We lived in trenches underground.

We waited.

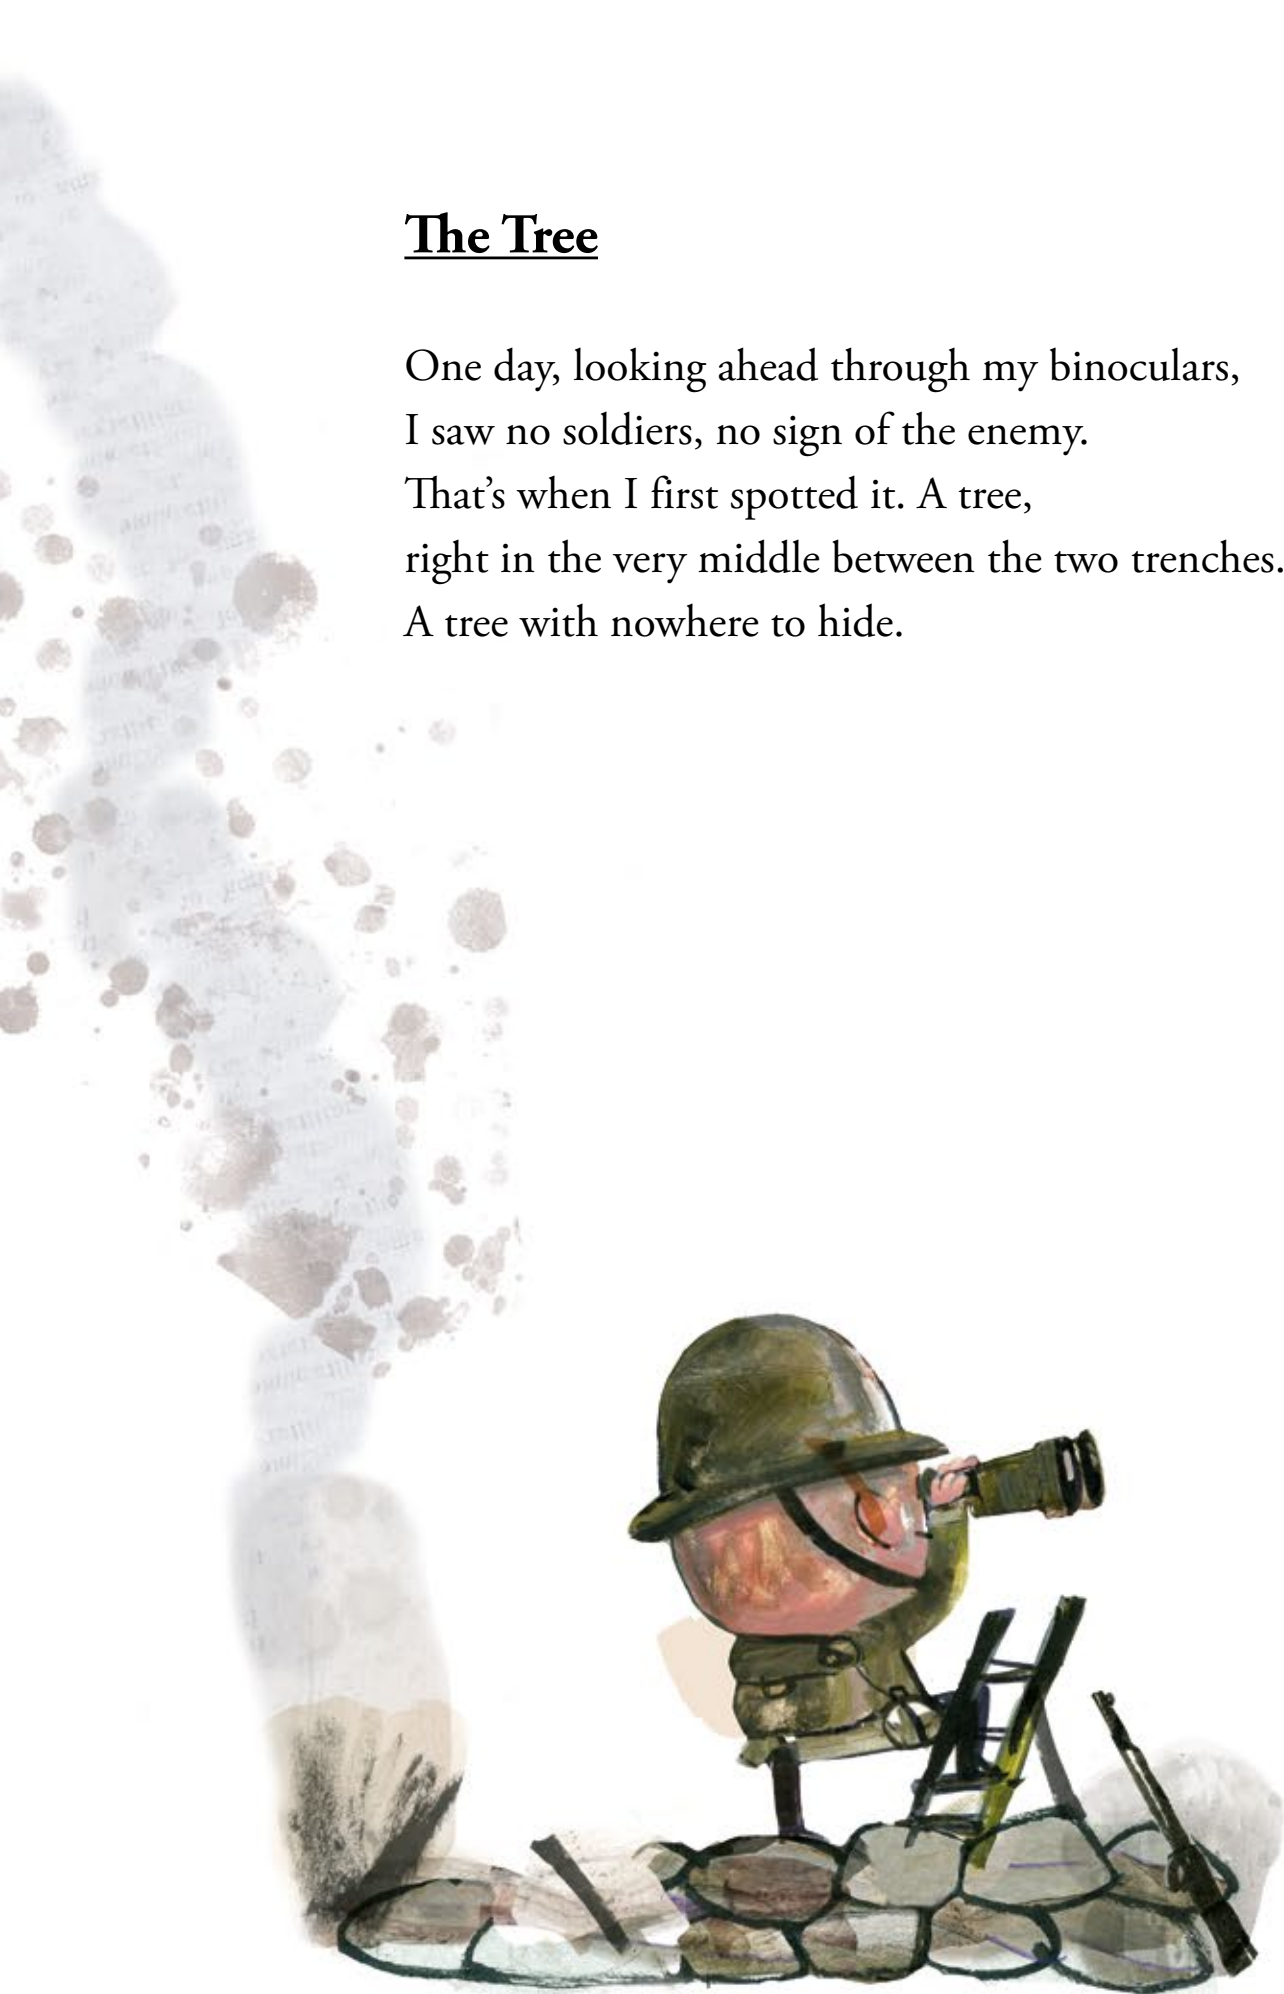

We feared the enemy and we feared venturing out.

Those on the other side... did too.

The Tree

One day, looking ahead through my binoculars,
I saw no soldiers, no sign of the enemy.
That's when I first spotted it. A tree,
right in the very middle between the two trenches.
A tree with nowhere to hide.

The Birds

Two little birds had made that tree their home.
