UN MAPA PARA PALESTINA

Maysa Odeh · Aliaa Betawi

values

A story about family,
resilience, and home
that is always present
in one's heart.

Layla and her classmates have been tasked with finding their families' countries of origin on a map. But no matter how hard she looks, Layla can't find Palestine.

Can a place exist if it's not on a map?

Confused, she turns to her family for answers. Her grandfather, grandmother, and mother show her her homeland from a different perspective, and each story helps her understand the history of her people and her own place in the world.

Where is Palestine? It's nowhere to be seen...
Layla needs answers, she needs to understand.
So she asks her family.*

QUERIDO PAPÁ NOEL

Jarvis

emotions

Jarvis returns
with this enchanting festive story for curious children everywhere.

When a little girl comes face-to-face with Santa in her own house, she can hardly believe it!

After inviting him into her world (Do you want to meet my fishes? Do you want to hear me play?) comes that universal wish (Can I ride your sleigh?). With the two of them aloft, questions continue to fly: Can Santa eat clouds? Does he stop at traffic lights?

With signature warmth and a gentle visual humor, Jarvis channels the excitement of every child who has dreamed of meeting the jolly, generous old soul who personifies the most magical night of the year.

With wit and affection, the inimitable Jarvis imagines the giddy wonder of a child who finds she has Santa all to herself—with free rein to ask all the questions that spring to mind.

FREEDOM

Cristina Expósito Escalona · Mo Gutiérrez Serna

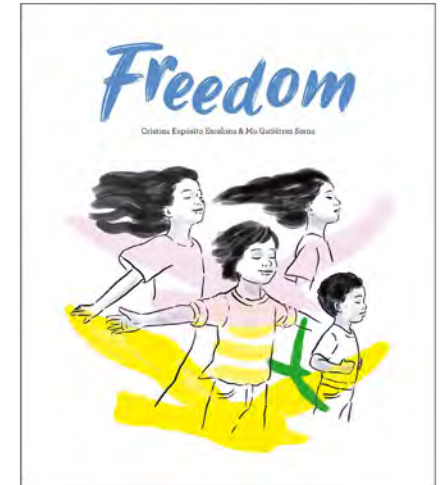

values

An ode to freedom and its true meaning. Did you know that we all have wings that give us freedom? But learning to fly takes time and demands dedication.

Freedom isn't about doing whatever you want, because all our actions have consequences. The most important thing to keep your wings from breaking is to be gentle with yourself and kind to others.

Everyone around you also has the right to move their wings wherever they want. Listening to them and respecting them is part of freedom.

*Let me tell you a secret, it's a really important one.
You might not know it... but you have wings.
Yes, we all do.*
